U.S. Patent No. 6,125,383 to Glynias et al. because it teaches a database system for chemical substances including structural and functional data along with analysis data and a system of permissions for accessing and modifying the data.

U.S. Patent No. 5,970,500 to Sabatini et al. because it teaches a database system for chemical substances including a set of structural and functional data internal to an organization related and accommodated in a database.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-22 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 1-22 is the method of handling information by the inclusion of the method steps being a related set of data is analyzed, classified, and converted to a form which enables the originator of the data to conveniently search for needed information after being accommodated and stored in another database. It is these steps found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination, that has not been
